

Healthy Church Matters

providing advice & mentoring in Church Health & Growth

We have over 30 years experience leading urban & rural churches, and developing the qualitative aspects of church life as the necessary foundation to church growth.

experience

Martin Saxby led local churches that have seen growth in urban and rural contexts for over 30 years. He then worked with clergy and laity across the diocese of Coventry mentoring them in growing healthy churches.

passion

Martin is passionate about the local church as the Body Christ and loves to work with others as they seek to help their church become all that God wants her to be.
